OUR ELDERS

Bill Clary

Many of you are not blessed with the opportunity to see Don and Andy at work during the week, but know of their love for the Lord.

Almost daily these men come to the church building to discuss matters of importance to South Anchorage and how to better lead the congregation. Since both are retired, they are able to give far more time to the work than many elders elsewhere.

These men have literally spent hours on the phone, listening to lessons, answering correspondence, reviewing answers and comments regarding the preacher candidates. They intend to find the one best suited for the work here and have asked for your valuable input.

Take a moment today and let them know how much you appreciate them. A card of appreciation in the mail to each of them would be a nice gesture, too.

South Anchorage is blessed to have these godly men leading us to greater heights on our journey toward heaven.
